MAY 21, 1907.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

Governor—S. W. HAGER, of Boyd.
Lieut. Gov.—SOUTH TRIMBLE, of Franklin.
Atty. Genl.—J. E. HENDRICK, of McCracken.
Supt. Pub. Inst.—M. O. WINFREY, of Bell.
Comr. Agr.—J. W. NEWMAN, of Woodford.
Auditor—H. M. BOWEN, of Fayette.
Secy. State—H. VREELAND, of Jefferson.
Treasurer—RUBY LAFFOON, of Hopkins.
Clerk Cr. of App.—J. B. CHENAY, of Madison.
U. S. Senator—J. C. W. BECKHAM, Nelson.

The little Prince Alfonso was christened in Madrid Saturday.

John Brasher received 1395 votes,
D. S. Edwards 1334 and Mun Wilson 83 in the Hopkins county primary election.

The Wisconsin Republicans, after a long deadlock, nominated Isaac Stephenson, for Senator to succeed Spooner.

The Kentucky Press Association has decided not to go to Jamestown, but will meet at Estill Springs on June 17.

The Morganfield Sun is now issued twice a week. Charley Hart has made the Sun one of the best country papers in Kentucky.

Dr. P. W. Foote, a farmer and the leader of the Society of Equity, has been nominated by the Democrats for representative in Breckenridge county.

Abe Hummel in New York and Abe Ruef in San Francisco, two pretty high flyers, seem to be headed straight for the penitentiary, one a perjurer and the other a grafter.

A Detroit contractor stopped work on a home three weeks to give a robin time to hatch her young. He probably remembered that it was a Round Robin that made Roosevelt president.

The Cadiz Record has changed to an eight-page quarto form and is greatly improved in appearance and general arrangement of its matter.
We congratulate Editor Lawrence on the prosperity that seems to be coming his way.

Isaac Stephenson, the new Senator from Wisconsin, doesn't lack much of being a Democrat. He has announced his platform and is in favor of a thorough tariff revision, reducing duties wherever possible without reducing wages of labor; of strengthening the interstate commercial law, of restraining rail roads, of strengthening the anti-trust laws and imposing additional penalties, of Federal income and inheritance taxes and of the election of Senators by a popular vote. That platform reads like Bryan might have written it.
Stephenson will do.

A Bad Stomach

Lessens the usefulness and mars the happiness of life.

It's a weak stomach, a stomach that can not properly perform its functions.

Among its symptoms are distress after eating, nausea between meals, heartburn, belching, vomiting, flatulence and nervous headache.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Cures a bad stomach, indigestion and dyspepsia, and the cure is permanent.
Accept no substitute.

Alarm Clocks.

You kin have your old alarm clocks with their metal bang and clash Knockin' all the mornin' castles that a feller builds—ke-smash!
I don't kakekate t' want 'em in th' country where I live, I prefer th' daybreak wak'nin' that th'
things of Nature give.
Said o' startin' up in terror at th' bang-in' of a gong, I jist dream along expectant fer th' cat-bird's littin' song An' a meadowlark a callin' from his perch upon a weed, Jist invitin' me t' hustle an' git up—it's time t' feed!

As th' sun comes sorter slantwise through
th' windows in my room, Drivin' out th' hauntin' shadders an'
dispellin' all th' gloom, Then I slip right out o' dreamland into Heaven while th' breeze is a singin' in th' branches of th' honeysuckle trees!
Frum th' distance comes th' moolin' of a cow that wants her slop An' th' crowin' of a rooster that has filled his mornin' crop.
While across th' fields is stealin' such a medley of delight,
That the hull durned world is wak'in' frum th' thrallidom of th' night!

An' your heart is filled with music, while the symphony of joy Sorter effervesces in you like it did when, jist a boy,
You went trampin' through the grasses on a lively dog-trot hike Fer t' git th' choicest station at th' dam fer ketchin' pike!
An' you take your bath a whistlin' when you kin, fer blowin' off; Jist a splashin' like a robin flirtn' water at the trough.
Next you go t' breakfast smilin' at the woman that you love, Jist a joyin' in th' blessin's that come troopin' frum above!

You kin have your old alarm clocks crackin' daybreak into shreds—We jist sorter look t' Nature fer t' draw us frum our beds.
We prefer t' glide frum dreamland into symphonies of day.
That are callin' light an' airy, like a brooklet on its way.
I suppose I'm some old-fashioned but, b'gosh, I'd rather feel This here sort of mornin' music, that I know is pure an' real.
Than t' hear a grand pianny er an' o'by singer screech—
I kin understand this music an' th' tother's out o' reach!

When I die, somehow I'm hopin', that the music up above Won't be nothin' short o' Nature's that I've learned t' know an' love, Won't be nothin' but th' grossbeak's an'
th' meadowlark's and sich Jist a wak'in' up th' mornin' tother side o' Gabriel's ditch.
If it's this I'll rest plum happy in th'
land beyond th' skies Where th' walls is made o' dewdrops
crystallized into Paradise—Anyhow, I'm restin' easy and enjoyin' while I may These here mornin's I have mentioned jist a dawnin' this-a-way!

Thin.

"Speaking of thin people," said Wings, helping himself to a sliver of -odfish, "I once knew a man who was six feet, two inches tall and weighed only fifty-seven pounds."

"That's nothin'," interrupted Silas Swing, squirting saliva at the knot-hole back of the stove, "I had a feller workin' fer me last spring that went to Hick'ry t' a Modern Woodmen banquet and swallered an olive by mistake. Next day Doc. Greene pronounced it dropsy and operated on him fer it."

But just then the grocer blew out his lights and the local strategy board adjourned, sine die.

COURT IN CADIZ.

The John Kelly Case is Back From Court of Appeals

Circuit court began in Cadiz yesterday and quite a number of Hopkinsville people went down. The case of John Kelly, sent back by the court of appeals for trial, after it had been thrown out of court, is the most important one to come up.
Chief public interest lies in the attitude that will be taken towards barn burning and other forms of lawlessness in the county.
